Librarians want consistency

One central source of the truth
RT @pubperspectives: Nielsen says that books with accurate metadata sell 40% more than books with incomplete data. #metacon #fbf11

Librarians want a good return on investment

Don’t want to spend money and have nothing to show for it
Librarians want to be connected with 12 workshops, 250 librarians from 131 institutions

Pollock: partnerships 😊

1. Libraries want consistency
2. Libraries want return on investment
3. Libraries want to connect
4. Libraries want to do things right
